Testimonials

Mr & Mrs Woods April 2011

The Hilton Brand is renowned for extremely high standards; however, this was something else. the planning stage gave us no concern whatsoever, you had everything in hand from the offset. The build up to the day, food tasting, absolutely anything we required was never any trouble and went ahead with ease. The food was out of this world at the Wedding Breakfast and the Evening Buffet was incredible. We were completely looked after.

Mr & Mrs Ruddock August 2011

Thank you for all your hard work and planning everything so perfectly, we couldn't fault a thing

Mr & Mrs Bracken September 2011

Thank you for making the day go without a hitch. Thank you so very much.. You did an outstanding job.

Mr & Mrs Fox December 2011

My wedding was the best day ever, the staff at Hilton made our dreams come true

Wedding Traditions

The Wedding Bouquet

In the olden days this was made up of strong smelling herbs to frighten away evil spirits and surround the couple with beauty. Most flowers have their own meaning. The bouquet used to contain orange blossom which symbolised fertility

The Dress

White was the colour which the ancient Romans believed would ward off evil spirits. It had nothing to do with purity. The veil was designed to protect the brides from evil spirits seeing her beauty and being jealous

The Honeymoon

Centuries ago it was customary for the bride and groom to drink mead from honey, for a month after the wedding. A month was known as a moon, hence honeymoon.

The Cake

The cake is a very ancient feature of the marriage feast. The richer the mixture, the more abundant the marriage would be. The original mix was sesame seed and honey. The first slice should always be cut by the bride and groom.

Photography

The first photograph was taken in France in 1862. It took 8 hours to make the first exposure. Luckily today's Bride and Groom do not have to main still for that long. In 1835, William Fox Talbot of Great Britain invented the process of making a negative from which later prints could be taken. The first colour photograph was taken in 1861.

Throwing the shoes

This was the traditional way of transferring responsibility from the Brides father to her new Husband. This is now kept alive by tying shoes to the back of cars.

Tossing the Rice

Believing that newlyweds brought luck, they were showered with nuts and grains to ensure a beautiful harvest and many children to work the land. This became the throwing of rice and now confetti

Anniversaries
